

HOME SCHOOL AGREEMENT

As a school we will:-

- Provide an education committed to developing the whole child, encouraging learning through knowledge, skills and practical activities.
- Support pupils to become tolerant, respectful and caring individuals who enjoy their work and play and are proud of their achievements.
- Contact parents/carers if there is a problem with health and well being, attendance, punctuality, equipment or homework.
- Arrange at least two appointments a year during which progress and learning targets will be discussed.
- Send home regular reports (three times a year) detailing progress, effort and achievement.
- Keep parents/carers informed about events, activities and news.
- Inform parents/carers about curriculum topics for each term.
