HEADTEACHER: MRS. E. PEARSON

21 February 2024

Dear Parents,

A few reminders and news for Term 4.

Miss Dobson will be leaving at the end of Term 4. Miss Dobson has been with us since January 2022 and has been a Forest school lead as well as a class teacher. She is leaving teaching to start a new challenge. Everyone at Teynham wishes her the best of luck for the future. From Term 5 Ms Ellis will be the class teacher in Year 5. Ms Ellis covered Miss Donoghue during term 3 and became part of our team so we are delighted that she will be a permanent member of Teynham C of E School.

We should see the new build starting this term. More details to follow.

Thank you for all the pictures of you and your child reading with a hot chocolate. We still would like some more so please keep sending them in. office@teynham.kent.sch.uk

We will be continuing with shutting the car park gates between 8:30 and 9:00. This has improved the safety for the children in the morning.

PE kits - Years 5 and 6 have been coming in on their PE days in sports kit. This has been successful for a number of reasons. We would like to extend this out to Years 3 and 4 from next week. All children in Years 6,5,4 and 3 can wear joggers (black or dark blue), white t-shirt, trainers and their school jumper. Long hair needs to be tied back on PE days

PE days Year 6 –Monday /Thursday

Year 5 - Monday /Thursday

Year 4 -Tuesday/Wednesday

Year 3 –Tuesday/Thursday

Uniform – black shoes or trainers can be worn. Any other type of shoe is not school uniform.

There will be an attendance leaflet going out soon. This time we are focusing on types of absence.

Overall attendance up to end of term 3 was 94% for the same time last year it was 92.14%. an improvement in attendance. Fox class had the best attendance for term 3 so they had a non-uniform day this week to celebrate.

As the weather is very unpredictable at this time of year please ensure your child has a coat with them everyday and make sure it is named.

Thank you for your continued support.

Mrs Pearson
