A table will be set aside to share memories of D-Day. Feel free to bring souvenirs, newspaper cuttings or photos. These items will be returned at the end of the day.

Remembering D-Day

The D-Day operation on June 6, 1944, brought together land, air, and sea forces in what became the largest amphibious invasion in military history.

Codename Overlord, the operation marked the Allied invasion of occupied France, and became a pivotal operation that led to the liberation of Western Europe during Second World War.
